The Doxology

When I was asked to return to CPC during John Rafoth's absence this winter, I asked three of my friends who are published composers to write a Doxology Introduction for me to share during this time. All three friends shared their creative gifts. Today I will play the introduction written by Bradley Ellingboe.
~Robert Haigler

Ordinary Time

Most of the church year is organized around the two major festivals that mark sacred time — Christmas and Easter. The rest of the year is known as Ordinary Time. This term comes from the word "ordinal," which means "counted time." Ordinary Time begins in January, breaks for the season of Lent and Easter, and returns after Trinity Sunday, ending with Christ the King Sunday.

Remain standing to Share the Peace of Christ

The peace of Christ be with you all. And also with you.

The Doxology Hymnal No. 592 (Introduction by Bradley Ellingboe)

Praise God, from whom all blessings flow;
Praise God, all creatures here below;
Praise God above, ye heavenly host;
Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost. Amen.

Children ages 3-10 are excused at this time for Kids in Worship in the Sunday School rooms downstairs.
