~ Psalm 103:1-5

Bless the Lord,, O my soul, and all that is within me, bless God's holy name.

Bless the Lord, O my soul, and do not forget all God's benefits--

Who forgives all your iniquity, who heals all your diseases,

Who redeems your life from the pit, who crowns you with steadfast love and mercy,

Who satisfies you with good as long as you live so that your youth is renewed like the eagle's.

Bless the Lord, O my soul, and all that is within me,
bless God's holy name.

The Lord's Supper

ALL are welcome —

“The invitation to the Lord’s Supper is extended to all - remembering that access to the Table is not a right conferred upon the worthy, but a privilege given to the undeserving who come in faith, repentance and love.”
~ The Presbyterian Book of Order

We offer gluten-free communion bread and wafers, and non-alcoholic wine, so that everyone may partake without concern.

The Celebration of the Lord’s Supper

Please stand for the Affirmation of Faith ~ Philippians 2:5-11

Let the same mind be in you that was in Christ Jesus.

We believe in Jesus Christ who, though he was in the form of God, did not regard equality with God as something to be exploited, but emptied himself, taking the form of a slave, being born in human likeness.

And being found in human form, he humbled himself and became obedient to the point of death — even death on a cross.

Therefore God also highly exalted him and gave him the name that is above every name, so that at the name of Jesus every knee should bend, in heaven and on earth and under the earth, and every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father. Amen.

The Invitation to the Table and The Great Thanksgiving

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Lift up your hearts.

We lift them up to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord, our God.

It is right to give our thanks and praise...

Sanctus (Holy, Holy, Holy Lord)

Hymnal No. 581

Holy, Holy, Holy Lord, God of power and might...

Great is the mystery of our faith:

Christ has died, Christ is risen, Christ will come again.
