CONTEMPORARY WORSHIP

March 31, 2019 • 11:00am

OPENING PRAISE

Call to Worship

Come, the family of God is gathered here!

We gather together to worship the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

Come, brothers and sisters, children and grandparents,
old and young, rich and poor;

Women: Remember God's goodness and celebrate God's grace.

Here we bring all that we are and all that we have;

Men: Here, Jesus is Lord and makes us one family.

Come, for all are welcome here!

Come and sing God's praise.

Unstoppable God

Holy Spirit

Prayer of Confession (in unison)

Lord, you know the ways we have wandered from you this week – the thoughts that filled our minds, the words we spoke, the things we did, the things we left undone. Forgive us and draw us back into your love and grace. Lord, have mercy. Christ, have mercy.
Lord, have mercy on us.

(silent personal prayers are offered)

Assurance of Forgiveness

People of God, hope in the Lord!

For with the Lord there is steadfast love,

And with the Lord is great power to redeem.

It is God who redeems us from all our iniquities.

Friends, believe the good news of the gospel:

In Jesus Christ, we are forgiven.

(adapted from Psalm 130)

ENGAGING WITH THE WEEKLY PSALM: PSALM 130

The Psalms of Ascent were sung by the Israelites as they walked uphill to Jerusalem for Passover and other Jewish festivals. We invite you, as part of your journey to Good Friday and Easter, to allow this week's Psalm to sink more deeply into your heart by continuing to engage with it. This could be as simple as reading the Psalm once a day or using the suggestion below:

Find a sung version of Psalm 130 on YouTube or elsewhere (suggestion: Out of the Deep from Rutter's Requiem). Close your eyes and listen prayerfully.
