Wisconsin Interfaith Voter Engagement Project Kickoff
Thursday, February 13 • 6-8pm • First United Methodist

This event is the kick-off to a year-long campaign to build bridges between faith communities and strengthen democracy by working together to increase voter engagement across Wisconsin, especially among those facing obstacles to voting due to ethnicity, race, age, economic status, or other factors. Refuge will be planning CPC-based voter engagement projects following this event.

The Righteous Mind book discussion
Sunday, February 16 • 6pm

This book does not focus on a particular group of people we may think of as righteous, rather, it sheds light on how we all think, based on comprehensive social and cultural psychological analysis. CPC's justice group Refuge is hoping it might help us to engage others who think differently from us in meaningful dialogue. Questions?
