Lent at Christ Presbyterian Church

Wednesday, March 4 - Wednesday, April 1

5:30pm soup supper • 6:30pm worship (chapel)

This season of Lent will explore the meaning of what the Prophet Micah (Chapter 8) said that God REALLY wants – for us to “Do Justice”, “Love Mercy” and to “Walk Humbly” with God. That sounds rather straightforward, doesn't it? Simply put, almost bumper-sticker-like.

Childcare for ages birth to five available during service.

You're Invited: Visual Meditations for Lent

To participate in this shared practice, watch for something visual which intersects with your Lenten journey (The Life of a Seed, and Micah 6:8), and once each week, before Thursday morning, email a photograph from your phone to info@cpcmadison.org, subject line "Visual Meditations." If prompted, choose higher size/quality when sending. We will print the photos each week and add them to the wall in the hallway gallery. We will include your first name. Stop by the wall to reflect on the meditations of others. Thank you!
