The Sixteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

10:00am Online Worship

*We are ... A Community centered in Christ:
gathering in love, growing by grace, going forth to serve.*

Ordinary Time

Most of the church year is organized around the two major festivals that mark sacred time — Christmas and Easter.

The rest of the year is known as Ordinary Time. This term comes from the word "ordinal," which means "counted time." Ordinary Time begins with Trinity Sunday and ends with Christ the King Sunday.

The Sundays of Ordinary Time are often used to focus on various aspects of faith, especially the mission of the church in the world. Some ministers use Ordinary Time to focus on specific themes of interest or importance to their congregation, or build sermons around the Lectionary readings. The sanctuary color for Ordinary Time is green, a color traditionally associated with new life and growth.

Welcome

The Call to Worship

Adapted from Psalm 30

Sing praises to God, O faithful ones.

We give thanks and proclaim God's holy name.

Weeping or joyful, mourning or dancing,
we come to God as we are, for all are welcomed by God's love.

We open our hearts to healing, to life restored.

Let us worship God.

Song of Praise Cornerstone

Music by Jonas Myrin, Reuben Morgan, Eric Liljero and William Batchelder Bradbury

Words by Jonas Myrin, Reuben Morgan, Eric Liljero and Edward Mote

The Prayer of Confession

Adapted from Psalm 8

Wonderful Creator God, the whole earth declares your greatness.

Your glory glows in the heavens and is seen in the moon and the stars which you have set in place.

Who are we that you care for us?

Yet you have made us only a little lower than yourself and crowned us with glory and honor.

You have given us responsibility to care for the sheep and cattle, for wild things, for all creatures that swim and fly.

Forgive us for destroying rather than restoring and for polluting rather than nurturing.

Help us to declare your glory and the glory of your world.

A Time of Silent Confession

The Assurance of Pardon

See what love the Father has given us, that we should be called children of God; and that is what we are. (1 John 3:1)

Friends, receive this love and believe the Good News:

In Jesus Christ, we are forgiven!

Response of Praise Who You Say I Am

Why read the Lectionary?

The daily Lectionary readings expand the range of biblical reading in worship and personal devotion by providing daily scripture citations for home reading.

These readings complement the Sunday and festival readings.
