A Mighty Fortress

Words and Music: Christy Nockels and Nathan Nockels, 2009

Prayer of Confession (in unison)

(silent personal prayers are offered first)

God of grace, we give thanks for the men and women who have gone before us, who have loved us, challenged us, and cheered us on. Many on whose shoulders we stand were not flashy or extraordinary. But they lived faithfully, keeping their eyes on Jesus. Strengthen us to strip off every weight that slows us down, especially the sin that so easily trips us up. May we run with endurance the race God has set before us, keeping our eyes on Jesus. Amen.

Assurance of Forgiveness

Friends, believe the good news of the Gospel:

In Jesus Christ, we are forgiven, chosen, and made new!

Sermon Series: Life in the Spirit

Join us in worship for this fourth week examining Life in the Spirit together...Creating, Fueling, Renewing, and Reforming!

Talk About It! Discussions From Today's Sermon

1) In the sermon, Carter mentioned that tradition can be used to oppress as well as set free. In what ways have you experienced either of these?

2) The church has been constantly reformed by the Holy Spirit's work in various people throughout history - Martin Luther, John Calvin, Martin Luther King Jr, Rachel Held Evans, etc. What Holy Spirit-led church reformers have been meaningful to your faith journey? What makes them and their work meaningful?

3) What is the Holy Spirit calling you to take part in reforming today?

Asylum for Afghans

Most of the recent Afghan refugees have a two-year temporary legal status, "humanitarian parole." While a small portion of these refugees have routes to get a Green Card, most will need to apply for asylum to stay in the U.S. The asylum process is lengthy and uncertain. Email Angie Dickens (afdickens08@gmail.com) to learn more about Humanitarian Parole, ways to respond and pray.

Before the Flood Film Discussion

Our confrontation with the climate crisis can easily seem overwhelming. The video "Before the Flood" presents a helpful introduction to the problem. Join us on Zoom to discuss the film and consider what we, as individuals and as a church community, can do to faithfully respond to the challenge before us. Watch the 90 minute video prior to the discussion. Contact Peter (pblanchard@tds.net) for the Zoom & film links.
